BOOK CLUB GUIDE

About The Lion's Game

"The Lion" will be landing. And at New York's JFK Airport, an elite American task force waits as the notorious Libyan terrorist prepares to defect to the West. Then, aboard Flight 175, something goes eerily, horribly wrong - a mere prelude to the terror that is to come. Ex-NYPD cop, now Task Force contract agent John Corey - together with his formidable and beautiful new partner, Kate Mayfield - will follow a trail of smoke and blood across the country. His quarry: a foe with the cunning of a lion and all the bloodlust of a man. To win a desperate game with no rules at all, Corey must invent a strategy that leaves room for no luck at all.

Book Club Questions for Discussion

1. Do you think this story about terrorism is relevant today?
2. As you were reading the book, what were your thoughts as the author alternated chapters from the perspective of John Corey and Asad Khalil?
3. What do you think about the interplay between John Corey and Kate Mayfield?
4. How is the character of John Corey similar to today's portrayal of police officers and law enforcement in books and movies? How is it different?

Fun Fact: Chapter 41 is set in the Cradle of Aviation Museum on Long Island. The museum once had a display of crime scene tapes to indicate where the two fictional bodies from The Lion's Game had been found.*
