BOOK CLUB GUIDE

About Radiant Angel

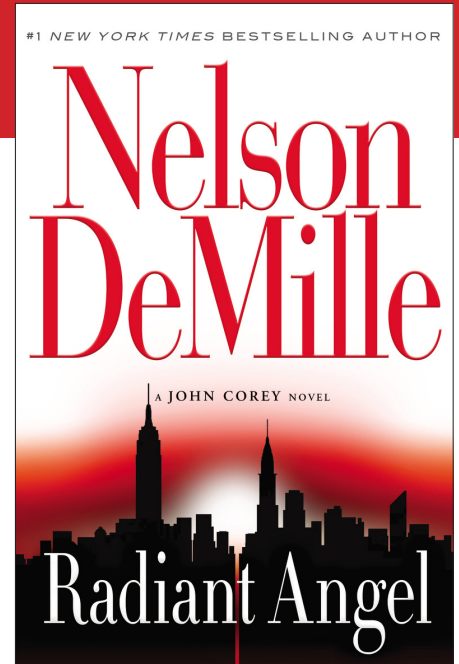

After a showdown with the notorious Yemeni terrorist known as The Panther, John Corey has left the Anti-Terrorist Task Force and returned home to New York City, taking a job with the Diplomatic Surveillance Group. Although Corey's new assignment with the DSG—surveilling Russian diplomats working at the U.N. Mission—is thought to be “a quiet end,” he is more than happy to be out from under the thumb of the FBI and free from the bureaucracy of office life.

But Corey realizes something the U.S. government doesn't: The all-too-real threat of a newly resurgent Russia.

Prescient and chilling. DeMille takes us into the heart of a new Cold War with a clock-ticking plot that has Manhattan in its crosshairs.

Book Club Questions for Discussion

1. Do you believe this novel fairly depicts the current political environment?
2. Much research was done regarding the nuclear device. Is the plot believable? Does the novel deliver in terms of suspense?
3. Detective Beth Penrose re-appears in this novel (we first meet her in Plum Island). Were you surprised?
4. This is the 7th book starring John Corey. How has the character changed over the course of these novels (or any of the John Corey novels you have read)?
